

ABOUT DISTRICT SPEAKER'S BUREAU

1. What is a District Speaker?

She is usually a member of the District Board of Directors who has broad knowledge of WRJ resources and is able to speak knowledgeably on those topics, provide advice, and deliver a variety of workshops and training.

2. What expenses does the local Sisterhood incur by having her?

Very little; treat her as you would a guest in your home. Assist her in making transportation connections if she is not driving. All other costs are paid by the District. If she prefers staying at a hotel, assist in those arrangements.

3. What will she speak about?

Any subject pertaining to Sisterhood activities as well as installation of officers, Sisterhood Shabbats, and Leadership workshops. It is expected that you will also utilize her services for Board education or development, specially scheduled if necessary, at the time of her visit.

4. How often is a District Speaker available to a local Sisterhood?

Just as with Women of Reform Judaism, the District can only honor one request per Sisterhood on alternate years, thus allowing every Sisterhood either a WRJ speaker or a District speaker each year.

5. How is a District Speaker requested?

Requests for a District Speaker should be mailed to the Communications Coordinator at least eight (8) weeks before the date desired.

6. How is a District Speaker honored?

A voluntary contribution to a WRJ Project or activity in honor of the Speaker is recommended. .
